Elden Ring in detail

The power of the Oath-bearers sets in motion the greatest tragedy in the history of the Desolated Plains. Out of their greed for the eternity's sake, they plundered the power of the gods, and in the process showed their true colors. At that point of time, the most sacred ruler of the planes, the god of the Moon and the Earth, the Storm God was in disgrace. He was banished to the Moon, and the Oath-bearers were accordingly cursed. Afterwards, the Oath-bearers founded a new religion, and during the era of Darkness and the Oath, they expanded their empire. They enslaved the gods, and the land was filled with the suffering of despair. The Frozen Plain was the only exception, and there, the gods of creation and destruction lived in ancient isolation. The endless cycle of misery began... the kingdom of Karthea and Sareth were founded by the Oath-bearers at that time.

You have been selected from the best troops in your country as a new recruit. Your country needs you now. "I do not care who you are. I need you. For the sake of the country, protect your honor. For the sake of the country, protect your honor. That is what I want from you." The words of the Royal Knights echo. Before you are those brave knights who raise their right arms as a group in order to protect the country. This is the clear contradiction between the knights and you, the hero. In the brink of the War, the Knights of the Elden Ring will clash with their enemies. As you enter the war, go on a journey to protect your honor. Fight against the holy knights' invasion, and make history with your swords.

LEVEL CAPTAINS Sparring is a fight to the death. A duel where one can only win by reaching a higher level. In the level cap system, the level cap for each class is determined as either max level or max level+1, and the position of the class leader is determined. For example, the class leader of the battlefields is Valkyrie. She is the highest level of the battlefields, and even the highest level of the front line. The class leader of the road is Rumpelstiltskin. He leads the class of professional soldiers. He is the only one who can be a max level of the front line. The position of the max level of the road is the lowest.

THE EFFECT OF A DEAD END. You need to always pay attention to the way around. There are several dead ends around every level. After passing through a dead end, you'll be automatically returned to the previous level. During gameplay, you will be able to avoid dangerous situations with 'Flash Backs'. It is the ability to temporarily avoid situations that leads to the dead end. A dead end occurs when you reach a top level area but you cannot move forward. In other words, you will be unable to move forward while facing the enemies. A dead end will not be displayed to the player. It will only appear when you come close to a situation that leads to the dead end. There are some special conditions in the War of Honor. You can gain items from the War of Honor by participating in the War of
